What Keeps Me Inspired

THINGS THAT MAKE ME HAPPY AND MOTIVATED

1

TIME WITH GOD

Spending quality time with Jesus is sweet to me. I love diving deeper into the Bible and really getting to know the God who loves me beyond measure!

2

COFFEE DATES

Well, I have the tea. But I enjoy spending one-on-one time with friends. We meetup at coffe/tea houses and build a strong relationship.

3

THE BEACH

I don't think I can live too far from a beach. It's my place to go for exercise, inspiration, to destress, and to spend dates with Jesus.

What I Do During My Free Time

THINGS THAT KEEP ME OCCUPIED USUALLY ON WEEKENDS

1

I sooo want to say read. I used to be an avid reader. But I can't fold clothes and read at the same time. So, now, I spend more time with Hallmark movies and series. But I do still read.

2

Podcasts are a new love for me and I love them. I am as passionate about learning as I am about teaching.

3

Selflove is essential. DIY spa facials and body spa keeps me centered and at my best.
